Why would you like to serve on this particular board?:

The Restaurant Tax Advisory Board is something that I am interested in because I feel that benefiting the town through non-profits and the arts is very important. Passion is something that drives these types of businesses, and the more humanity you can add to a town, the better off it will be.

Tell us a little about yourself, and your qualifications:

I have been involved in community organizations through my job at Top Shelf Services. The Peoples Health Clinic, Recycle Utah, and the NAC being some of them. This has helped me develop a passion for business and the state of park city as a whole. I feel that through these different organizations I can start to help benefit the city and create some passion of my own around the parts that are important to so many in the area. Before I came to park city I was an AmeriCorps participant in an Organization called City Year Boston. There I helped mentor youth as well as completed physical service projects with many different partners in order to help create awareness of the high school drop out crisis in the area.
