The Summit County Building Department and Engineering Department are pleased to announce the inauguration of their new online permitting system. This new system will allow prospective applicants to apply for a permit at their leisure, from the comfort of their home or office. Starting on March 1, 2018 to apply for a Building or Engineering permit please visit summit.co.ut.eprocess360.com at this time the applicant will be instructed to create an account. The applicant will now have the opportunity to apply for the permit of their choice.

Summit County in accordance with the Utah Home Builders Association, as presented by West Coast Code Consultants, has arranged a date in which the public is invited to attend a demonstration of the new application procedure. Please refer to the side panel for detailed information concerning the training sessions.
