

Proclamation No. 2018-4

PROCLAMATION DECLARING APRIL 2018

“National County Government Month”

SUMMIT COUNTY, UTAH

Whereas, the nation’s 3,069 counties serving more than 300 million Americans provide essential services to create healthy, safe and vibrant communities; and

Whereas, in order to remain healthy, vibrant and safe, America’s counties provide healthcare, protect drinking water, manage waste, administer justice and public safety, and promote environmental stewardship through conservation and sustainable practices that play a key role in everything from public health to emergency response; and

Whereas, counties move America forward by creating economic opportunities, providing transportation infrastructure and transit that support community mobility, investing in technology, and much more; and

Whereas, Summit County, Utah takes pride in our responsibility to protect and enhance the health, welfare and safety of our residents in efficient and cost-effective ways; and

Whereas, each year since 1991 the National Association of Counties (NACo) has encouraged counties across the country to actively promote their own programs and services to the public they serve; and

Whereas, by participating in NACo President Roy Charles Brooks’ “Serving the Underserved” initiative, Summit County is focusing on the critical role it plays in breaking multi-generational cycles of poverty; and

Whereas, Summit County employs 312 full-time employees and 31 part-time employees who serve more than 41,000 residents and 3.3 million overnight visitors to Summit County.

Now, therefore, be it resolved the County Council of Summit County, Utah, does hereby proclaim April 2018 as National County Government Month and encourages all county officials, employees, schools and residents to learn more about county government programs and services by visiting the County’s website, following the County on social media and participating in healthy dialogue that contributes to the success of the County.

ATTEST:

APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 4th day of April, 2018.
